

Accessing Your Kids A-Z Account and Your Teacher's Assignments

Kids A-Z is one of programs you can use read e-books from home. Just follow the directions below! We've included pictures to help you. If you or your parents/guardians have any questions, email Miss Lindsey at ld@depaulhearingandspeech.org

1. Go to (or click the link:)
<https://www.kidsa-z.com/main/Login>

2. In the box that says "Your Teacher's Username," type in "depaulteacher" and click "Go" to log in.

3. Click on your username.

Accessing Your Kids A-Z Account and Your Teacher's Assignments (continued)

Change Student

4. Click on your password picture and then click "Go."

Student Password

5. Go to the bottom of the page. Here you will see your assignments from your teacher. Click on the shape to access them.

The screenshot shows a user dashboard with the following sections:

- Your all-time super stats & stuff (All Stats >):
 - 22 Listens
 - 34 Reads
 - 0 Quizzes
 - 33 Videos
 - 0 Interactivities
 - 0 Lessons
- Activity Cards:
 - Level Up! > (3/10 completed)
 - Messages > (0)
 - Backgrounds > (4)
 - Badges > (2)
- Your recent assignments:
 - Assessment (1)
 - Reading Assignments
 - Science Assignments

A yellow arrow points from the text in block 5 to the "Your recent assignments" section. A yellow oval highlights the "Assessment", "Reading Assignments", and "Science Assignments" items.